

Basic Policies Against Anti-Social Forces

Rich Mori Investment Ltd. declares the following basic policies to prevent damage caused by groups or individuals (commonly referred to as anti-social forces) who pursue economic interests through violence, coercion, and fraudulent means:

1. We do not associate with anti-social forces in any way.
2. To prevent damage caused by anti-social forces, we will cooperate with external specialized organizations such as the police, the Violence Exclusion Promotion Center, and lawyers, and respond to them organizationally and appropriately.
3. We will not comply with unreasonable demands from anti-social forces and will respond firmly with legal measures.
4. We will not provide funds or engage in backdoor deals with anti-social forces.
5. We will ensure the safety of individuals who deal with unreasonable demands from antisocial forces.
